Kerosene Oil in a Closet Was Responsible for Blaze Which Detroyed Very Handsome Home

An alarm of fire was turned in yeserday morning at 9:10 o'clock and within 30 minutes after that time the handsome home of Samuel Moore on River street, just oppposite Bouna Vista park, was in ashes. The entire building was burned to the ground and almost all of the house furnishings went up in smoke. The piano, a trunk or two and a few small articles were taken from the building but the loss was almost complete.

Mr. Moore went into a closet yester-day morning about 9 o'clock to search for a pair of shoes and struck a match. When he did so a part of the match dropped to the floor and struck Miss Marie deVebre, a graduate of extinguish the blaze with a wet blanPindolph-Macon and of Columbia Unket but to no avail. It Always Helps says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Cardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Pefore I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill.

I wish every suffering woman would give
